(C) On February 24, poloff and polintern delivered ref A demarche to Lieke Biesemans, attach for human rights at the Belgian Ministry of Foreign Affairs (MFA). Biesemans said Belgium will abstain in the February 26 vote by the UN General Assembly (UNGA) on a Palestinian-drafted resolution based on the Goldstone Report. Domestic accountability by both Israelis and Palestinians for human rights abuses is a crucial issue to Belgium, she said, and both parties should continue their investigations. Biesemans said Belgium does not currently see a unified EU position on the Goldstone Report vote. She said Belgium wants any further discussion on the report to take place in Geneva, not New York. She acknowledged this will be difficult because Belgium and the U.S. are in a minority on this issue.
